Summary Explanation/Background

On March 1, 2016, Plaintiff William Henderson was driving his automobile when he stopped at a red light on Broward Boulevard and 7th Avenue in Fort Lauderdale, and he was rear-ended by a Broward County bus. The Plaintiff filed a negligence action against the County alleging the accident caused him serious injuries. The Plaintiff has undergone substantial medical treatment after the incident, including surgery, and has been recommended for additional surgery in the future. His medical expenses, to date, are $147,458.06.

The Plaintiff has agreed to release Broward County from all claims arising from the incident in exchange for $150,000.00, which includes costs and attorneys' fees, subject to Board approval.

The Risk Management Division and Transit Division recommend approval of this settlement.
