Summary Explanation/Background

On January 1, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation, announcing that slaves shall be “forever free.” Over two years later, on June 19, 1865, the Union Army informed the enslaved African Americans of their freedom and that the Civil War had ended. June 19, also known as Juneteenth, commemorates this event and celebrates the end of slavery in the United States. It is an opportunity for all Americans to celebrate freedom and equal rights.

Several states and municipalities, including New York, Virginia, New Jersey, New York City, Massachusetts, and Portland, have recognized Juneteenth as a paid day of leave for their employees. Additionally, Miami-Dade County and local municipalities, such as Tamarac and Pembroke Pines, have recognized and designated Juneteenth as a paid holiday.

The proposed amendment to the Administrative Code would designate June 19 as a paid holiday for full-time and part-time County employees.
