Summary Explanation/Background

Commissioner Torey Alston is submitting the following advisory board members for reappointment:

- Lois A. Bush to the Climate Change Task Force in the category of "Florida Department of Transportation"
- Marlon D. Bolton to the Community Action Agency Advisory Board in the category of "elected public official"
- Natasha Britton to the Health Facilities Authority
- Marcia P. Barry-Smith to the Housing Council in the "no category voting member"
- Frances Esposito to the Housing Council in the category of "CEO of homeless organization"
- Caryl Hattan to the Housing Council in the "no category non-voting member"

The above members were appointed by former Commissioner Dale Holness to fill at-large positions on their respective boards. Section 1-233(a)(2)(b), provides that advisory board members who are not appointed by a fixed term continue to serve for six months after their nominating commissioner leaves office, by which time, the newly elected or newly-appointed commissioner may reappoint the incumbent or appoint a new member. If no action is taken, the seats become vacant six months after the new commissioner takes office.

Approval of this item would give rise to certain employment conflicts under Section 112.313(7)(a), Florida Statutes, which provides that "no public officer...shall have or hold any employment or contractual relationship with any business entity...which is...doing business with an agency of which he or she is an officer or employee." In accordance with Section 112.313(12), Florida Statutes, Board approval is required to waive any conflict arising under Section 112.313(7)(a), Florida Statutes. An effective waiver requires a two thirds vote of the County Commission after full disclosure of the conflicting relationship. Form 4A, Disclosure of Business Transaction, Relationship, or Interest, is attached hereto as Exhibit #1 and constitutes full disclosure of any existing conflicts.
