Summary Explanation/Background

In 1986, Charles J. Bosco, the predecessor of CJB Real Estate, L.P., deeded to Broward County a portion of property in the Imperial Point section of Fort Lauderdale identified as folio number 494212220020 for the construction of the Imperial Point Library and folio number 494212220030 for the construction of a parking lot (collectively, “Library Property”). The Library Property is adjacent to property that was owned by Bosco and identified as folio numbers 494212220010 and 494212220013 (“CJB Property”). The CJB Property and the Library Property were developed as a single shopping center and the County and Bosco entered into a Declaration of Covenant and Restrictions and Reciprocal Easement and Maintenance Agreement (“Declaration”) for a 50-year term. Under the Declaration, the owner of the CJB Property was responsible for the maintenance of the parking and pedestrian areas of both the CJB Property and the Library Property (“Common Area”) and County paid for its share of the maintenance.

The current owners of the CJB Property, CJB Real Estate, L.P., have requested that the terms of the Declaration be modified to make the reciprocal easements perpetual, which will allow them to improve the CJB Property, and have agreed to be responsible for all costs related to Common Area maintenance.

Motion A approves the Reciprocal Easement Agreement, which, inter alia, provides for a perpetual reciprocal easement and that the owners of the CJB Property will be responsible for all Common Area maintenance costs. Motion B terminates the Declaration, which is superseded by the Reciprocal Easement Agreement.
