Summary Explanation/Background

On August 24, 2019, Plaintiff Betty Ramberg was a bus passenger who was involved in an incident while exiting a Broward County bus. The Plaintiff filed a negligence action alleging that she suffered serious injuries when the rear doors closed prematurely and caused her to fall and land on the pavement below. The Plaintiff has undergone substantial medical treatment subsequent to the incident, including surgery. Her medical expenses, to date, are $91,201.53.

The Plaintiff has agreed to release Broward County from all claims arising from the incident in exchange for $65,000.00, which includes costs and attorney's fees, subject to Board approval.

The Risk Management Division and Transit Division recommend approval of this settlement.
