Summary Explanation/Background

June 19, also known as Juneteenth, commemorates the date in 1865 when the Union Army informed enslaved African Americans in Galveston, Texas, of their freedom from slavery and the end of the Civil War. Juneteenth is recognized as a holiday in more than 45 states, with several state and local governments recognizing Juneteenth as a paid day of leave for their employees. On June 17, 2021, Juneteenth was declared a paid federal holiday.

If approved, the Administrative Code would be amended to establish Juneteenth as a paid County holiday.
