Summary Explanation/Background

On May 2, 2022, the Board of County Commissioners ("Board") enacted Ordinance No. 2022-21 that created Sections 20-105 and 20-106 of the Broward County Code of Ordinances ("Code") to require 60 days' notice for terminations or increases in rent for certain residential tenancies in Broward County. Specifically, 60 days' advance notice of termination is required for quarterly and monthly residential tenancies without specific duration; and unless a lease expressly provides for a set rental increase, landlords are required to provide 60 days' advance notice prior to a rental increase of greater than five percent (5%) for residential tenancies whether or not they have a specific duration.

This proposed Ordinance would modify the types of residential tenancies to which these notice requirements apply, including by expressly excluding assisted living facilities, and would exempt the following from the 60-day notice requirement:

- (1) Terminations of residential tenancies by servicemembers under specific conditions set forth in Section 83.682, Florida Statutes (e.g., deployment, involuntary separation from military service, transfer of station greater than thirty-five (35) miles from the property being rented, etc.);
- (2) Terminations of residential tenancies by the landlord or the tenant for specific breaches of the rental agreement, such as the requirement of the landlord or tenant to properly maintain the residential property as required in Sections 83.51 and 83.52, Florida Statutes, or a failure of the tenant to timely pay rent;
- (3) Terminations of residential tenancies resulting from issuance of a writ of possession or after entry of a final judgment or final order of eviction or unlawful detainer in a civil action filed pursuant to Chapter 82 or 83 of the Florida Statutes, or other applicable law; and
- (4) Increases in rent pursuant to Section 83.58, Florida Statutes, for tenants who hold over after expiration of a rental agreement and continue to possess residential property without the consent of the landlord.
