RE: Jacaranda Parcel 761 Plat (PB 113-45)
Drainage Easement Vacation
City of Plantation
CT&A PROJECT NO. 15-0058-102-01

Dear Jean-Paul:

This narrative describes the rationale behind our request to vacate a portion of the drainage easement recorded in the Jacaranda Parcel 761 plat (PB 113-45). The drainage easement is within the former Plantation Fashion Mall site, which is now being redeveloped into the Plantation Walk mixed-use community.

This drainage easement was originally dedicated in 1982, and the entire southern two-thirds of it were vacated in 1987 per ORB 14654, PG 983, BCR. The remaining northern one-third is the subject of this proposed vacation. As the site is being entirely redeveloped, most of the easements no longer serve any purpose.

The southwestern corner of this remnant easement encroaches upon the proposed location of one of the residential buildings. Upon commencing the redevelopment, the owner of the site was informed by the Old Plantation Water Control District (OPWCD) that the easement was no longer needed as they are able to access their drainage facilities via other means. This easement does not have any pipes within it. The waterway has been reconfigured with OPWCD approval, maintaining pre-development requirements for conveyance.

Please call me at (954) 739-6400 ext. 379 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
CRAVEN THOMPSON & ASSOCIATES, INC.
