Mayor Geller,

Monica Cepero is absolutely the right hire to be our next County Administrator. Generally speaking, I favor a national search for a position of this importance. However, in this case, Ms. Cepero is exceptionally qualified to step into the position of County Administrator to continue and enhance the great work that Ms. Henry has achieved during her tenure. As you well know, our County is complex and unique with our seaport, airport, tourism and an ever-growing population that now exceeds two million people. These characteristics require a person with unique skills, and I dare say there are very few candidates out there, if any, that have those skills.

As a native of Broward that has built several businesses here as well as raising my family, I wholeheartedly and strongly encourage the Commission to hire Monica Cepero as our next County Administrator. Thank you for your time.

Best, Steve
