Mr. Tiano,

I reached out to BJA leadership in regards to your dilemma. Unfortunately, when this type of change is made to an award, OJP is unable to issue a new agreement. Broward County, if willing, can print the legacy document(s), cross out the old vendor number and pencil in the new vendor number, cross out the Authorized Representative, pencil in the appropriate official, sign and attach in JustGrants (or email to the grant manager to attach in JustGrants). The other option, an "administrative funding adjustment" (AFA) refers to the lawful obligation of deobligated funds, which may take up to 6 months. During the AFA process, the awards are placed on hold and no activity (obligations) may occur.

I have attached an example of what may be done to accept the awards. Please let me know if you need further assistance.

Regards,

Alan
