SUBMITTED AT THE REQUEST OF

TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT

MEMORANDUM

DATE: October 10, 2022

TO: Mayor and Board of County Commissioners

FROM: Tim Garling, Deputy General Manager

SUBJECT: Additional Material – Agenda Item No. 10 – October 11, 2022
            Commission Agenda - Second Amendment on Agreement with Reladyne, LLC, formerly known as Flamingo Oil Corporation – AI #22-1469

I request a change to Summary Explanation/Background of the referenced agenda item in the last paragraph to provide clarification on the process used to determine that the increased product prices proposed by the vendor were consistent with the market, BCT compared Department of Labor Statistics PPI and the information from Miami-Dade County's invitation to Quote, as opposed to an informal quote process as was originally described in the agenda item.

Currently reads:

In response to the vendor's request, staff from the Transportation Department and Purchasing Division conducted a price analysis of other vendors through informal quotes and reviewed the US Department of Labor Statistics PPI Commodity data for Fuels and related products and power-Crude petroleum (domestic production) and found the increased product prices to be consistent with the market. The Office of the County Attorney prepared this Second Amendment.

Should read:

In response to the vendor's request, staff from the Transportation Department and Purchasing Division conducted a price analysis by comparing the US Department of Labor Statistics PPI Commodity data for Fuels and related products and power-Crude petroleum (domestic production) and Miami-Dade County's Invitation to Quote for various petroleum products and determined that the increased product prices proposed by the vendor to be consistent with the market. The Office of the County Attorney prepared this Second Amendment.
