

Item	Description	Date Executed by County Administrator
Revocable License Agreement between Broward County and the Florida Department of Health for use of the property located at 1801 NW 49 th Street in Fort Lauderdale	The agreement allows the use of the property as a civic facility during the COVID-19 pandemic for the following specific purposes: contact tracing of individuals exposed to COVID-19 and other related uses including but not limited to training and administration	July 31, 2020