Section F

The Applicant, Kirby Inland Marine, LP, ("Kirby"), is the principal marine transportation subsidiary of Kirby Corporation, a publicly traded company listed on the New York Stock Exchange (Symbol: KEX). As of March 31, 2025, Kirby operates 291 towing vessels and 1111 tank barges, with a combined cargo capacity of nearly 24.6 million barrels, on U.S. waters. Kirby has been providing vessel bunkering services for more than twenty years in other U.S. ports, including Houston and Corpus Christi, Texas.

In February 2011, Kirby acquired certain assets of Enterprise Marine Services, LLC - assets which have been employed to provide vessel bunkering services in Florida ports, including Port Everglades, for many years. Kirby retained the same mariners and shore-based support employees who operated those assets for many years, an operation that originated when Belcher Oil Company began operating a fleet of tugs and barges to provide vessel bunkering services in Florida in 1930. The Coastal Corporation acquired all the Belcher assets in 1977 and changed the name of the company to Coastal Tug and Barge in 1989. The Coastal assets were then acquired by El Paso Corporation in 2000 and changed hands again in 2003 when they were purchased by TransMontaigne until they were acquired by TEPPCO Marine Services, LLC on June 5, 2009. TEPPCO Marine Services, LLC changed its name to Enterprise Marine Services, LLC in November 2009.

Predecessors in interest to the Applicant have been delivering bunker fuels by barge in the ports of Canaveral, Port Everglades, Miami, Tampa and Port Manatee since the 1970's. While bunker delivery tugs and barges were continuously domiciled in Canaveral, Miami, Tampa and Port Manatee, that was not always the case in Port Everglades. Prior to 2001, the tugs and barges servicing Port Everglades were domiciled in the port of Miami, transiting to Port Everglades to deliver bunkers as needed.

Operating in this fashion was very weather dependent, resulting in a less as reliable source of bunkers for ships calling Port Everglades. Since 2001, a tug and barge have been stationed in Port Everglades for the sole purpose of providing vessel bunkering services, which has greatly enhanced service capabilities and reliability. Kirby expects to continue operating its bunkering service to vessels in Port Everglades on the same basis as it has done since the inception of this bunker franchise in 2011.

Section P

Applicant's Safety Program is comprised of many elements, all of which are encompassed within the Towing Vessel Safety Management System (TSMS), which is certified by The American Bureau of Shipping (ABS). Vessel safety is achieved through a continuous audit process based on TSMS, which addresses categories such as navigation and communication equipment, firefighting and lifesaving equipment, environmental controls, hull and machinery, boat and barge rigging, personal protective equipment and numerous other categories. These audits also ensure compliance with USCG subchapter M regulations.

The frequency of training of the Applicant's employees is dependent on the subject matter and applicable regulatory requirements. Basic training in connection with job functions and responsibilities precede assignment to the fleet. Appropriate supplemental training is provided as necessary to enhance skills and enable promotion, including U.S. Coast Guard licensing. Specialized training is provided for individuals with positions involving special hazards or responsibilities. Refresher training is provided routinely and when required by regulation for the maintenance of U.S. Coast Guard licenses. Weekly safety meetings and periodic drills and exercises provide training with respect to specific conditions, hazards and emergency response actions.

Each vessel crewmember possesses the license and/or endorsement(s) appropriate to their position, issued by the U.S. Coast Guard, which must be in their possession when assigned to the vessel. Each vessel crewmember also possesses a valid Transportation Worker Identification Credential (TWIC) issued by the Transportation Security Administration.

Attached are Applicant's TSMS Certificate, ABS Towing Vessel Annual External Survey Checklist, Vessel Safety/Quality Internal Audit Checklist, and Safety and Occupational Health Policy, Drug and Alcohol Policy. Below is information on Applicant's Training Center and Training Center Courses.

Section R

Ability to Promote and Develop Growth of Port Everglades

In February 2011, Applicant purchased the vessel assets of Enterprise Marine Services based in Miami, Florida in order to expand its vessel bunkering and related operations in the State of Florida.

Applicant has been providing reliable, safe vessel bunkering services since the inception of its Vessel Bunkering Franchise in 2011. One tug and barge remain domiciled in Port everglades, tug Indian River and Barge-305. 4 additional seagoing barges are homeported in Port Miami that are utilized in Port Everglades during the busy winter cruise season, handling the increased bunker demand in Port Everglades during that season.

In 2020, we cleaned the tanks on barge 305, sent it to Port Everglades to facilitate carrying Very Low Sulphur Fuel Oil (VLSFO). This was done so that we could have the ability to offer bunkers in compliance with the IMO's resolution 2020 Sulphur Emissions Cap.

In 2024, we provided 625,227 bbls VLSFO to vessels visiting Port Everglades.

Applicant continually reviews and evaluates potential opportunities that would be complementary to our business operations with Port Everglades.

Section T

Letter of Adequacy from the US Coast Guard and operations manual

This item is not applicable to the proposed vessel bunkering operations, as the Applicant is a vessel owner/operator, not a facility owner/operator. 33 CFR part 158 contains the regulations concerning Certificates of Adequacy, and they are applicable to ports and reception facilities. Certificates of Adequacy are used to certify facilities that receive oily mixtures, garbage, and NLS residue. See 33 CFR 158.120.

Similarly, the operations manual requirements are contained in 33 CFR 154.300, and they apply to land-based facilities. 33 CFR parts 155 and 156 set forth oil transfer procedures and requirements for vessels and do not include a requirement for a vessel owner/operator to have a USCG-approved operations manual. However, Applicant maintains vessel operations procedures which are certified by independent auditors as compliant with the requirements of ISO 9002 and the American Waterways Operators Responsible Carrier Program. Applicant will make a copy available for review upon request.

Section V

A copy of the Oil Spill Contingency Plan for Marine Transportation Related Facilities

This item is not applicable to the proposed vessel bunkering operations, as the Applicant is a vessel owner/operator, not a facility owner/operator. 33 CFR 154.1020 defines a "Marine Transportation Related Facility" as any onshore facility, and the intended vessel bunkering operations will be performed on Applicant's vessels. However, the Applicant operates those vessels under a USCG-approved Vessel Response Plan, as required by 33 CFR 155.1065. A copy of the USCG approval of Applicant's Vessel Response Plan is attached. Applicant's Vessel Response Plan is voluminous and will be made available for inspection upon request.

Section W

A Terminal Facility Discharge Prevention and Response Certificate with a copy or an approved Oil Spill Contingency Plan

This item is not applicable to the proposed vessel bunkering operations, as the Applicant is a vessel owner/operator, not a facility owner/operator. Fl. Stat. 376.071 (discharge contingency plan for vessels) provides that a plan in compliance with the federal requirement for a ship-specific discharge contingency plan shall satisfy the requirements for an adequate ship-specific discharge contingency plan. Applicant operates the vessels to be employed in the intended vessel bunkering operations under a USCG-approved Vessel Response Plan, as required by 33 CFR 155.1065. Copies of each applicable Vessel VRP approval and SOPEP approval are attached.

Section Z

An approved Discharged Cleanup Organization Certificate from the Florida Dept. of Environmental Protection

This item is not applicable to the proposed vessel bunkering operations, as the Applicant is a vessel owner/operator not a facility owner/operator. The Florida Dept. of Environmental Protection has advised that a Discharge Cleanup Organization Certificate is not issued to vessels operating independently of terminals. However, as required by 33 CFR part 155, the Applicant has ensured, by contract or other approved means, that the equipment necessary to respond, to the maximum extent practicable, to a "worst-case discharge" is available through its contracts with National Response Corporation and Marine Spill Response Corporation (USCG-approved Oil Spill Response Organizations), certificates attached.

The Integrated Management Information System (IMIS) was designed as an information resource for in-house use by OSHA staff and management, and by state agencies which carry out federally-approved OSHA programs. Access to this OSHA work product is being afforded via the Internet for the use of members of the public who wish to track OSHA interventions at particular work sites or to perform statistical analyses of OSHA enforcement activity. It is critical that users of the data understand several aspects of the system in order to accurately use the information.

The source of the information in the IMIS is the local federal or state office in the geographical area where the activity occurred. Information is entered as events occur in the course of agency activities. Until cases are closed, IMIS entries concerning specific OSHA inspections are subject to continuing correction and updating, particularly with regard to citation items, which are subject to modification by amended citations, settlement agreements, or as a result of contest proceedings. THE USER SHOULD ALSO BE AWARE THAT DIFFERENT COMPANIES MAY HAVE SIMILAR NAMES AND CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE ADDRESS MAY BE NECESSARY TO AVOID MISINTERPRETATION.

The Integrated Management Information System (IMIS) is designed and administered as a management tool for OSHA to help it direct its resources. When IMIS is put to new or different uses, the data should be verified by reference to the case file and confirmed by the appropriate federal or state office. Employers or employees who believe a particular IMIS entry to be inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date are encouraged to contact the OSHA field office or state plan agency which originated the entry.

If so, this may be rescinded by the U.S. Coast Guard if the appropriate response resources are not available when the approved waiver expires. You shall continue to assess the adequacy of your chosen salvors and firefighters as required by 33 CFR 155.4050.

The vessel must keep a copy of this approval letter onboard in addition to the minimum sections of the plan as required by 33 CFR 155.1030. Each item on the audit checklist will be signed off as either Satisfactory, Deficient, or N/A. Any items found to be "Deficient" the auditor will provide a comment or explanation describing the condition found, which may result in a finding. Findings will be documented on a Vessel Safety/Quality Internal Audit Report (QA-10-XX) with target completion dates for corrective action. Company-owned vessel audits are then recorded in Helm by Compliance.

Management personnel, including vessel Masters, responsible for the area involved in an audit are to ensure any finding corrective actions are addressed. Audit finding corrective actions are to be completed per C6.060: The Port Captain will follow up with the boat crew, when necessary, to ensure discrepancies have been corrected and verify corrective action completion by approving it in Helm prior to the next annual audit.

The Charter Vessel Owner will log and follow their process for tracking any findings for completion. A response will be submitted by the Charter Vessel Owner outlining the date the corrective action was implemented. This response will be sent to Kirby Logistics Management by the assigned target date. Charter Owners may deviate from this policy when permitted by Kirby Logistics Management. After receipt of the response, a Kirby Logistics Management Port Captain will board the audited vessel as additional verification, ensuring all items have been addressed to the satisfaction of Kirby.

Asterisk (*) denotes the usage of charter owned policies/procedures.
