

the manner set forth in subsection 5.c below for Official Charitable Solicitation. This Code does not impose any further restrictions on Private Charitable Solicitation.

2. When acting in an official capacity, an Elected Official may solicit funds, goods, or services for charitable causes, individuals in need (as determined by the Elected Official), or educational or humanitarian nonprofit entities that meet the Internal Revenue Code's criteria for charitable organizations ("Official Charitable Solicitation"), so long as there is no quid pro quo or other special consideration, including any direct or indirect exchange of benefits between the parties to the Official Charitable Solicitation.

3. The following do not constitute either Official Charitable Solicitation or Private Charitable Solicitation:

- a. Postings on social media pages ~~that~~ where the page does not have as ~~their~~ its primary purpose the promotion of charitable causes or events, provided that such postings do not tag specific individuals or entities in order to call their attention to the postings;
- b. Newsletters referencing a charitable cause or event where the primary purpose of the newsletters is not to promote charitable causes or events; or
- c. Provided that no specific, identifiable individuals are targeted, statements at publicly noticed meetings of the
