Michelle, as I have always done, when I'm selected as an Evaluation Committee member I first read the RFP and evaluation criteria and create a vision of what the perfect firm would be...like a judge at the olympics, the gold standard/perfect 10, and then a score each firm according to how they measure up to my gold standard...at the presentation meeting, after a firms presentation and q&a I finalize how I'll score the firm...then the results are what they are, unbiased, albeit subjective....if however a few of the firms are very close in my opinion, in this case it was Cartaya and Chen Moore, I look at them head to head....in the end, for me, it was the Cartaya teams combined successful track record with the County and the Port that was the reason I ranked them number 1...Chen Moore was a very close second with their sub Jacobs Engineering on their team...

Brenda and Marcos,

As requested, below is my scoring justification for your use.

RFP No. PNC2119212P1, Consulting Service for Port Everglades

As an Evaluation Committee member, I reviewed each of the vendors proposals which included the ability of professional personnel, project approach, past performances, work load, willingness to meet time and budget requirements, reference checks, and other supplied information. As I reviewed these proposals, I focused on the scope of work, personnel resumes, related projects, project approach, sub-consultant team members, and all other information submitted by the vendor.

During the presentation, I listened to each vendors presentation, and focused on their understanding of the scope of work required for the purposed of this solicitation.

Once the presentation were completed by all of the vendors, the ranking of the firms were based on the following items:

- 1.) My understanding of each vendors proposals submitted
- 2.) Evaluation criteria performed by the Project Manager
- 3.) Information supplied within the Purchasing Memo
- 4.) Vendors quality of information and understanding presented during the presentation
- 5.) Vendors answers to my specific questions during the Questions and Answer Session

Thanks,
Marc

Hi Michelle,

My rationale for scoring was based on the information provided on the submittals by each Consultant. Also, by the supportive clarity of details in their respective presentations, which included information acquired by answering of questions from the committee.

Thanks... Harris

Hi Michelle:

My scoring of the candidate firms was based on the submittals and the presentations presented to us. My scoring was also based in a good faith using my professional judgment and experience as to select the most qualified vendor to serve the Port in the best interest of the County. Additionally, my scoring tabulation genuinely reflects my honest opinion of the candidates. My scores were calculated based on my analysis of the various Evaluation Criteria and the responsibilities given to me when I was asked to serve on the Selection Committee.

Sincerely,
