Summary Explanation/Background

This item proposes that the Board of County Commissioners consider naming the complex trial and ceremonial courtroom on the seventeenth floor of the Broward County Judicial Complex, located at 201 SE Sixth Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 (“County Courtroom”), in honor of 17th Judicial Circuit Chief Judge Jack B. Tuter, Jr. (“Judge Tuter”).

Judge Tuter has served on the 17th Judicial Circuit since 2005. In 2017, Judge Tuter was elected Chief Judge. His responsibilities include, among others, ensuring the efficient and proper administration of the circuit and county courts in Broward County, directing the court's daily affairs, implementing a plan for the prompt disposition of cases, assigning judges and other court officers, controlling the dockets, regulating the courtrooms, and reviewing the status of inmates in the county jail.

Section 18.43 of the Broward County Administrative Code ("Administrative Code") establishes the Board's policies for naming property, buildings, structures, or facilities.

This item (1) adopts a Resolution waiving Section 18.43(c) of the Administrative Code, which precludes naming County-owned properties, buildings, or facilities after living persons; (2) provides notice that the proposed designation of the County Courtroom will be on a future Board agenda, as is required in Section 18.43(h) of the Administrative Code; and (3) directs the County Administrator to solicit community input from three local municipalities, homeowners' associations, or other appropriate community groups.
