The purpose of the five referenced contracts is to provide continuous janitorial services for Facilities

Management Division (FMD). On December 17, 2020, the Facilities Management Division requested emergency contract threshold increases for the referenced contracts. The request is due to the 90-day term extension specified in the contract, Living Wage increases, additional demand from Broward County using agencies and additional services related to COVID-19 activities (Exhibit 1). The Director of Purchasing was unable to approve the request, as it exceeds the Director's delegated approval authority.

Motion A. On December 22, 2015, the contract was awarded by the Director of Purchasing to Triangle Services of Florida, Inc. in the estimated not-to-exceed amount of $4,011,277 for a two-year initial term, including three one-year renewals in the five-year potential estimated amount of $10,028,193. The contract began on January 1, 2016 and is due to expire March 31, 2021.
