Summary Explanation/Background

The Office of the County Auditor conducted an audit of Consultants' Competitive Negotiation Act (CCNA) Contract Procurements. The objectives of our audit were to determine whether CCNA procurements were made in accordance with laws, rules, and regulations and in accordance with generally accepted public procurement principles and whether use of CCNA contracts is in accordance with laws and generally accepted public procurement principles.

We conclude that CCNA procurements are made in accordance with laws, rules, and regulations and in accordance with generally accepted public procurement principles, and that use of CCNA contracts is in accordance with laws and generally accepted public procurement principles.

We appreciate the cooperation and assistance provided by County Administration and the Purchasing Division throughout our audit process.
