Messrs. Jones and Green,

I understand that Mr. Jones has asked the County Recorder to release a bond connected with this case. Given that your current litigation would seem to be directly related to the contract that bond was intended to secure, the County is reluctant to release the bond without a court order because the County does not want to end up liable to more than one claimant.

Mr. Jones phoned and informed me he will move the court for such an order. The County has no opinion as to what should happen to the bond, but we would like to be present at hearing to answer any questions the Court may have. I would therefore appreciate if you both would provide me with copies of any papers relevant to this motion and if you would confer with my office regarding the timing of any Zoom hearing so we can be present.

I will be on leave starting tomorrow through December 27, but I will have intermittent access to email.

Thank you for your cooperation, and best wishes for a happy holiday.
