

Data on Family Court Navigators Pilot Program from Family Court Services (FCS)

This past week (May 18-22)

10 new families were referred to FCS for services.

and 01 family previously referred for additional services.

FCS received 35 new referrals for services.

FCS received 3 new referrals for social investigation.

Since inception:

145 Families have been referred to FCS for services,

FCS has received 492 referrals for services.

In addition to:

32 Supplemental Orders of Referral for Social Investigations and

08 Supplemental Orders of Referral for Parenting Coordinators

This makes a total of 524 Court-Ordered Referrals to Family Court Services

Specifically, FCS has received referrals for the following:

43 referrals for individual counseling for minor children

16 referrals for individual counseling for adults

36 referrals for parenting classes

154 referrals received for Co-parenting

112 referrals for family counseling

32 referrals for family counseling where reunification intervention is required

05 referrals for substance abuse counseling

17 referrals for substance abuse evaluation

13 referrals for substance abuse testing through hair follicle

17 referrals for psychological evaluation

04 referrals for psychiatric evaluation

06 referral for anger management

01 referral for psychosexual evaluation

19 referrals for supervised visitation

13 referrals for therapeutic supervised visitation

01 Mental Health Evaluation

02 Paternity

01 Other

Currently, 14 Social Investigations are open.

Thank you,

Joseph M. D'Amico, Esq.

Trial Court Administrator

Seventeenth Judicial Circuit

Broward County Courthouse